

Regent Hong Kong Presents
The Elevated Art of Mid-Autumn Festival Gifting

17 July 2023 (Hong Kong SAR): Marking the first Mid-Autumn Festival since the return of reimagined Regent Hong Kong, the rare haven on Victoria Harbour is celebrating the beloved festival and its joyous spirit of reunion with mooncakes in bespoke Regent and Lai Ching Heen giftboxes and flavours. Both the Regent Hong Kong and Lai Ching Heen mooncake giftboxes complement each other as the perfect gift for one of the most anticipated and treasured festivals of the year. Crafted in limited quantities, the bespoke mooncakes can be pre-ordered now to ensure family, friends and business associates can savour this special treat in celebration of time-honoured traditions and joyful reunions marking the full moon festival and bountiful harvest season.

Celebrating a rich legacy with the continued accolades of two MICHELIN Stars and Black Pearl Diamonds, Lai Ching Heen brings back its beloved egg custard mooncakes, homemade by the culinary team of Executive Chef Lau Yiu Fai and Head Chef Cheng Man Sang in a limited quantity with a heritage recipe they have perfected over decades. The exquisite collection of mini egg custard mooncakes is handcrafted with edible gold leaf flakes melded into the deliciously smooth and creamy mixture, elevating it into a shimmering gourmet treat and prestigious gift. The Lai Ching Heen Mini Egg Custard Mooncakes (HK$688 with 6 pieces per box) are artfully presented in a bespoke giftbox resembling a jade jewellery chest with drawers that open to reveal Lai Ching Heen's rich heritage of Cantonese culinary treasures with inspiration from its refined jade décor.

Concurrently to the Lai Ching Heen Mid-Autumn traditions, the Regent Hong Kong introduce a new creation of mini assorted flavour mooncakes in salute to the homecoming of Regent.

The Regent Hong Kong curated collection of mini assorted flavour mooncakes is elegantly presented in a sleek teal giftbox in two layers with golden moon insignias. Featuring a variety of infused tastes and textures sure to delight everyone, the mini mooncake collection is crafted with premium ingredients and distinctive flavours including White Lotus Seed Paste with Yolk, Red Bean Paste with Mandarin Peel, Green Tea Custard and Earl Grey Tea Custard (HK$428 per box with two pieces per flavour). With its diverse array of flavours, this mooncake collection is the quintessential gift for business associates, family and friends or to miserly amuse yourself.

This Mid-Autumn Festival share the joy and spirit of reunion at Regent Hong Kong's Dining Destination with stunning views of Victoria Harbour and the luminous full moon as the spectacular backdrop for festival gatherings with family and friends. From a curated menu of seasonal specialities at the two MICHELIN Stars Lai Ching Heen to a lavish international buffet inspired by the world's local markets, plan a Mid-Autumn Festival reunion that becomes a treasured occasion and unforgettable culinary journey.
